"I often go walking through meadows of clover, and I gather arm-fuls of blossoms of blue. I gather the blossoms, the whole meadow over; Dear Mother all flowers remind me of you.

O Mother, I give you my love with each flower to give forth sweet fragrance a whole life time through; for if I love blossoms and meadows and walking, I learn how to love them, Dear Mother, from you."

I Often Go Walking, CS #202

The Dixon Family
